LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Generally fair and warmer tonight and Sunday.

Deputy Sheriff Montoya left last night for a short visit to Bernadillo. Miss Elizabeth Nohl, of Espanola, is here on a visit to Albuquerque friends. R. G. Marmion, a well known citizen of Laguna, was a visitor in this city today.

Ex-Sheriff T. S. Hubbell left last night for a brief trip to El Paso and points in Arizona.

Dr. G. W. Harrison, accompanied by his son, returned last evening from a short professional visit to Las Vegas.

A marriage license was yesterday granted to Mary Torres, aged 17, and Serafin Garcia, aged 22, both of Los Griegos.

R. Perry, accompanied by his little son, who have been visiting in the city from Fort Defiance, left last night for that place.

O. W. Alexander, a mining man of Cowles, returned to that place last night, after a few days spent in this city transacting business.

The members of the Lyric Male Quartette left last night for Gallup, where they will render a concert tonight in Kitchin's opera house.

The calendar season is now with us, and the mails are loaded with them. Many people are getting out some very elaborate ones this year to advertise their business.

The Christmas season has commenced to affect the work in the post-office and express office, and the next two weeks will see strenuous times in those two places.

Miss Ethel Finkle, formerly employed at the University, has left that institution and accepted a position as governess in the family of Mrs. A. M. Morley, at the Morley ranch, in the Dulit mountains.

E. C. Allen, who has been in the city visiting his family, owing to a serious illness of his little daughter, Adelaide, returned last night to Gallup, where he is connected with the Gallup Electric company.

James Scruggs and family, formerly of Kansas City, have arrived in Albuquerque and will make this city their future home. Mr. Scruggs having accepted a position with the City meat market on North Second street.

John Belknap, who looks after the interests of the American Lumber company in the woods, arrived in the city yesterday and was in consultation during the day with President Johnson. He will return to Keetner tonight.

U. S. G. Poank, who has been in the city the guest of J. K. Allen, of the local Indian school, left last night for western Arizona, where he will spend several days prior to his return to his duties at the Haskell Indian Institute at Lawrence, Kas.

Perfecto Armijo, sheriff of Bernalillo county, came in from Santa Fe last night, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Haynes, of Pagosa Springs, Colo. The lady will spend the holidays here with her parents and relatives.

Fred E. Robertson, accompanied by his wife, will leave in a few days for Little Water, Ariz., where they will take charge of a day school. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson have been filling the positions of instructor and assistant teacher respectively, in the local Indian day school in this city.

Dr. V. Safford, of Santa Fe, traveling auditor of the territory, was in the city last evening in from Santa Fe last night, accompanied by his brother-in-law, O. B. Stanton, of Kansas City. Mr. Stanton is interested in mining property at Mayer, Ariz., and left for that place last night. Mr. Safford returned to the capital today.

James and Robert McCutcheon, representing the Gray's Ferry Printing works, of Philadelphia are in the city today, and were callers at The Citizen office. The gentlemen will leave tonight for southern California, and after a stay of a few days there they will go via the Pacific coast route to Chicago, where they will spend the holidays at home with relatives.

Rev. J. M. Solie, the popular pastor of the Highland Methodist church, who has been in the south the past few weeks soliciting funds for a new church of his denomination to be built in this city, returned home this morning from the south. Rev. Solie reports a very successful trip in the interest of his church, and will soon make his report to his congregation.

Albuquerque will soon have a Pullman car office, as announced exclusively in The Citizen the other day, as P. H. Rhodes, an inspector of the Pullman company, is sitting up offices in the Alvarado, at the northeast corner of the grounds. Handsome furniture is on the way and Mr. Rhodes, who will have charge of the lines between Kansas City and California, and south to El Paso, will have one of the newest little offices on the western line.

The Lordsburg Liberal says: D. Kaseman, a brother of George Kaseman of Albuquerque, and a member of the Pyramid Peak company, was in the city this week, seeking an extension on the contract the company has to buy the Nellie Bly mine. Messrs. Blackburn & Campbell, owners of the property, had given the company one extension, and thought that if it wanted the property it should meet its contract, and so refused an extension.

Special communication of Temple Lodge, No. 5, A. F. and A. M., this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the Master Mason degree. J. C. Forger, recorder.

Contractor Schofield has secured from Owen Dinadale the contract for a big addition to the Highland livery stable, which will have a floor space of 100 by 25 feet. T. W. Ford called at this office during the day and requested that we state that he did not purchase the property, merely the business, and that Mr. Dinadale had nothing to do with the business whatsoever.
